

Academic Scholarship

Description

Girls in Year 6 in 2018 are invited to apply for an academic scholarship. This scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic potential and ability to contribute to the life of the School.

All scholarships are awarded at the Principal's discretion. The School may give preference to external candidates. The School reserves the right in its absolute discretion not to award a scholarship in any particular year or any particular award.

Notes

Candidates must sit the scholarship examination on Friday, 16 February 2018. Candidates are shortlisted according to their performance in the academic test. Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed by the Principal 5-10 March 2018 and final offers will be made prior to 31 March 2018.

Final selection is at the Principal's discretion.

Terms and Conditions:

- Applicants must accept the Conditions of Enrolment and any other requirements and conditions outlined in the scholarship offer. Scholarships may be withdrawn, and/or reallocated if candidates do not complete the acceptance as instructed.
- Scholarships, bursaries and awards cannot be deferred or transferred to another year of entry.
- Scholarships are not redeemable for cash or other benefits.
- Continuation of a scholarship each year will be subject to an annual review of the recipient's progress. Review of bursary recipients and means-tested scholars may also involve a review of the financial circumstances of her parents.
- Scholarship students must adhere to the Queenwood Code of Conduct published in the School Diary.
- Scholarship students are expected to promote school values –truth, courage and service– in the School and the wider community.
- Scholarships may be withdrawn at any stage if the recipient provides incorrect, false or misleading information or withholds relevant information. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship.
- The recipients of academic or build-your-own scholarships may be announced in School publications or used in advertising material. Means-tested scholars you may choose not to consent to the announcement of their award in school publications and/or advertising material published in commercial publications.
- Scholarship applicants must be Australian citizens or have appropriate residential visas for the duration of their time at Queenwood.
