FAQs for Teachers

What should I do if a girl doesn't bring a book?

Mobile libraries will be available for girls to select books from. Please check at the beginning of P3 that girls have books.

Are girls allowed to read their English text?

No. Please ask the girl to go and get a book from the mobile library.

Are girls allowed to read a foreign language book?

No. We are measuring gains in English language skills.

What should I do if a student consistently fails to bring a book?

Please let her tutor know.

Can students read on a phone, computer or kindle?

No. Research shows that best results are obtained from reading from paper books.

Do students have to read fiction?

Yes. Again, research has shown that most benefit is gained from reading quality fiction.

Can a girl read a comic/graphic novel/biography?

No, it must be a fiction book.

Do I have to read a book too?

Yes.

What should I do if it is clear that a girl is not reading?

Quietly go up to her and ask why. Please let the tutor know.

Can girls listen to music while reading?

No.

Can girls listen to an audio book?

No, unless provision has been granted by the Head of Specialised Programs.
